

Bebo-Wager-House AWOSANA GmbH

The Bebo-Wager-House and its aims

Our motto: As much independence as possible, as much help as needed!

The most important aim for the Bebo-Wager-House, as a facility for people with mental illnesses, is to provide the possibility of a realistic everyday life for all our residents.

By having individualized and target-oriented care, every resident of the Bebo-Wager-House has the possibility to maintain a broadly independent lifestyle respectively to regain it.

Our psychosocial and pedagogical benefits are based on behavioural, psychoanalytical and systemic principles.

Who can move in?

The Bebo-Wager-House accommodates people, who are in a difficult stage of life with mental issues. There they will find a place of care, furtherance and support in all areas of life.

Unfortunately we cannot take in people with a primarily organic brain damage, a primarily mental deficiency, a primarily addiction or who pose a permanent danger to themselves or others.

What do we offer?

Every service and step is individually determined with reference to your wishes and needs and therefore can be performed person-centred.

Dealing with and affects of the mental disorder

We ensure your medical and therapeutic care, such as consulting a medical practitioner and managing your medication. Furthermore, we will help you to find a suitable therapist, etc. During a personal crisis or in an emergency, it is important to be supervised. Besides your personal consultant and team, the Bebo-Wager-House provides on-call-staff 24/7.

Admission and social relationships

We ensure steady relationships by having a system of caregivers. We encourage your ability to establish contacts, settle and manage disputes, we have regular discussions to consult and unburden you. We offer group-management and group sessions in the unit you live in. Also we will help you to establish contacts outside the Bebo-Wager-House.

Care and lodging

“What counts is your comfort”

Care and lodging is offered either in shared living communities or in partly / fully self supply. Instruction, help and support with body care, tidiness and cleanness in your room or apartment, shopping, laundry and training of you mobility etc. will be provided.

Daily schedule, spare time and social life

You receive information and motivation in order to organize your spare time, but we also offer sportive activities, parties, cultural / social events, day trips and vacation for several days.

How to find us?

The Bebo-Wager-House is located in the centre of Augsburg-Pfersee in a quiet neighbourhood, close to the recreational area around the river Wertach. The house is within easy reach by either car or public transports. After a short walk you will find shops, cafés and restaurants.

Living on probation and admission

If you are interested you can get to know our facilities without any engagement and live there on probation. For more information about our service and questions on admission, please contact our AWO social psychiatric counselling service.
